

VACATIONISTS BUSY IN THE POCONOS

DELAWARE WATER GAP, Pa., Aug. 8.—Last Monday, when the river was a blaze of light reflecting from the rays of the full moon, a fleet of fourteen boats attended by two launches put forth from the landing field with summer visitors from the Kittatinny and sailed down the Delaware to the Water Gap, which was crowded by Prof. Savoyard, who has in charge the various entertainment features of the boat, and was a success in every way.

Three hundred resort visitors attended the five set vaudville on Thursday evening stages at the Water Gap House by cast made up of talent among the guests of the various hotels. Carl Jaenson of New York acted as master of ceremonies and introduced the numbers, the first act being an act of songs and impersonations by Earl Beck of New York, followed by Harry G. Mallory of Philadelphia, who played the mandolin. Fred and Adele Astaire, well known in New York vaudville, took third place on the programme with their dance act. Oscar Thompson of Philadelphia was the manager of the fourth act who had a unique spoochion. The entertainment concluded with a piano recital by Charles A. Lenton of Philadelphia. The affair was held for the benefit of Christ Episcopal Church in Stroudsburg.

Recent arrivals at the Water Gap from New York were F. B. Crowley, C. E. Crowley, Miss Crowley, Miss Agnes Shea, Miss Leonore F. Shen, S. Babcock, Stanley G. Harris, Miss Clara E.
